Use this report to identify the most dominant medical groups and target the top executives who make buying decisions and set policies for the groups. Download complimentary report.

INDUSTRY NEWS

The Changing Face of Physicians. With strain from the recession and growing demands from healthcare reform, the face of U.S. physicians has taken a dramatic turn. According to reports by The Physicians' Foundation, physicians are being bombarded with more work and stress, and they project that it will only get worse with healthcare reform. Read more about the changes taking place.

Healthcare Professionals Turn to Social Media for Jobs. According to a recent survey by AMN Healthcare, healthcare professionals prefer to use social media for job seeking rather than traditional methods such as newspaper ads, career fairs and other methods. The survey also shows that although social media's relevance for job seekers has increased, it still comes up short against methods such as referrals, online job boards and search engines. Read highlights from the survey results.

LISTS & DATABASES

Office-Based Physician Database Projected to Reach 700,000 Doctors This Month. SK&A's Office-Based Physician database has been growing throughout 2010 with new physicians and sites being added to the list every day. Currently with 695,000 physician names at 244,000 sites with connected addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, fax numbers and other high-value data points, the database is on track to break 700,000 contacts by the end of January 2011.
